It shouldn't surprise anyone to learn that my conditions of confinement have not at all improved over the past few weeks, but instead grown worse, beginning with further restrict-tions on my security status, on the basis of feigned concerns for my safety, + culminating with 6 grown men dragging me naked down the hall, b/c, again violations of my civil rights (including retaliation) & that's been the effective result of that decision. In the meantime I'm writing legal documents in crayon.

I can't access last week's mail (they've been withheld it for my Safety + Security) + I can't even wash my clothes.
Obviously, no one's made any effort to return my legal paperwork, neither do they intend to.

time I filed for appeal at the 1st Circuit. My friends in admin (in the main V&C office, not the SPU one, which is 100% unresponsive at all times) suddenly began seriously addressing my concerns + somewhat holding the consummate unprofessionalism here at SPU accountable. This followed a backlash, + a harassment campaign, some of which I've documented already, other parts which I will share with your lucky souls down the road as I prepare further filings.

US District Court
Exhibit Motion 23-cv

As in the previous instance where they misplaced my court papers in January, they've falsely documented that they returned them. This is false; I don't even have my glasses, & my faith in my jailers is such that I took a preemptive strike & ordered them (a new pair) from a warehouse in NJ, b/c I think they'll get here quicker... All of this started right around the

Following a stilted chat with Cps Marshall, during which I indicated I had some old nags I had been trying to get rid of for some time, he responded by either summarily destroying or withholding everything I owned, 1/2 by tossing my room, & then encouraging my treatment team to consign me to suicide watch.
Because of my ongoing conflict w/the property officer, which I have attempted to resolve in this forum, it's been impossible.

Motion for 60(b) relief: Status update

Needless to say, my conditions of confinement haven't magically improved all on their own. I still miss my work. Still missing, I can't make a phone call, + I can barely see because of my glasses. I'm stupid as hell, I won't return them. I'm solving the problem by getting a new pair from a warehouse in Iowa - they'll get here faster.

2. All of this is retaliation for filing lawsuit a) to be released, so I can go home + not be illegally detained while not receiving telemedicine care (b) to protect my friends + the doc into someone doing these jobs. By staying in the state, I have been in from since I was 17.

Clerk Lynch: Sorry for the non-confirming filings. I'm still trying to figure out the lock for the E1983 + habeas petition I created this year unfortunately, have not been able to access
